

EXCECUTIVE SUMMARY

Internship is an opportunity for the students to get an idea about the practical scenario that need to be faced in the corporate world .the perfect platform for exploring the knowledge and thereby to gain some kind of experience.

“Primary agricultural credit co-operative societ.ltd” rural co-operative bank which came to existence on 1945 with the mine objective of promoting the saving among the small inverter .

The research conducted focused on the risk the bank need to face while granting loan to customer and also the ways strateges and methods useds to minimise sush risk ,credit risk management is an analysing tool the bank to focus on their non performing assets.

Financel information required for the analysis has been opted form the financel statement like balance sheet and profit and loss account of the bank. Data of five financel year strating 2014-2019 has been collected.

Bank has a well planed procedure ,mechanism for treating the loans .opted by the bank are suitable for managing the credit risk .