

ARCHITECTURAL THESIS

Amulya Pradeep Kumar Kattimani
1AA15AT007

Thesis Documentation, 2020
Bachelor of Architecture

NRV School of Architecture
Acharya College
Bengaluru

Dedicated to the idea of creating architecture that enhances healing by acting as a medium between the built space and mother nature.

Contents

Ecotherapy centre

- Aim
- Objective
- Scope and Limitations
- Methodology

Narrative

I Introduction

- Connection with Earth: The core of Ecotherapy
- Treatment and Techniques
- Healing spaces - Theory of supportive design
- Can architecture heal?
- Design that triggers healing

II Referent Studies

Visual Narrative:

- Quiet Healing Centre- Puducherry

Written Narrative:

- Jiyan Healing Centre- Iraq
- Wellness Centre 'Tschuggen Bergoase'- Switzerland

Oral Narrative:

- Samata Holistic Healing Centre- Goa
- Inference

III Area Statement

IV Site Analysis

- Contour Map
- Land-use and Neighbourhood Analysis
- Proximity Chart
- Site Sections
- S.W.O.T Analysis
- Vernacular Architecture Study

V Design

- Evolution and Attributes
- Concept
- Zoning
- Bubble diagram
- Plans, Elevations and Sections