ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my guide Prof. Piyush Pant for the continuous support of my thesis study and research, for his patience, motivation, enthusiasm, and immense knowledge. His guidance helped me in all the time of research and completion of this thesis.

Besides my advisor, I would like to thank our dean Prof. Sheeraz Zaidei and the rest of my thesis committee: Prof. Priyanka Manusani-palli, Prof. Priya Joseph and Prof. Neha Mahindrakar, for their co-operation during these difficult times.

I also thank my fellow classmates for the stimulating discussions, for the sleepless nights we were working together before deadlines, and for all the fun we have had in the last four years.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my family for supporting me morally throughout my life.

This thesis focuses on creating architecture that enhances healing of the mind, body and soul which inturn achieves holistic healing. Acheiving this will come from methods that have been employed since ancient times like Yoga, Meditation, Ayurveda and other healing therapies from across the world. The result will be the well-being and true recovery of people in a holistic aspect.
